

Statehouse Statements

State Senator Allie Billie Breaux

Representing Senate District 34

State Senator

Billie Breaux

Representing Marion County
Democrat – Senate District 34
Term expires: 2008

A hard-working, respected public servant, State Senator Billie Breaux has dedicated her life to ensuring a better future for the next generation of Hoosiers.

Breaux, who spent 27 years teaching in the Indianapolis Public School system, is also a former president of the Indianapolis Education Association and a former vice president of the Indiana State Teachers Association. She was elected to the State Senate in 1990.

During her tenure in the Indiana General Assembly, Breaux has worked to support and improve public education, to provide workers with the training needed to compete in the global marketplace and make health care more accessible and affordable for all Hoosiers. She is also an outspoken advocate of protecting the integrity of Indiana's election process.

Breaux currently serves as the ranking minority member of the Senate Health & Provider Services Committee and is also a member of the Elections & Civic Affairs; Education & Career Development; and Appropriations standing committees.

A graduate of West Virginia State College, Breaux earned her master's degree from Indiana University in Bloomington. Breaux and her family reside in Indianapolis.

